The Church of Christ in Westhampton was organized Sept.r 5. A.1779. by the aid of the Rev. Jonathan Judd of Southampton and Rev. Solomon Williams of Northampton. The Rev. Enoch Hale the first pastor of the Church was ordained Sept. 29. 1779. The following pastors with brethren delegated by their churches composed the ordaining Council, viz. Rev. Mess.rs Jonathan Judd Moderator; who ordained and gave the Charge, Samuel Hopkins who offered the consecrating prayer, Joseph Huntington D. D. who preached from 1 Cor. II. 7. Joseph Lyman Scribe, who made the concluding prayer, Aaron Bascom the first prayer; Solomon Williams, who presented the right hand: Gershom C Lyman and Mr. Joel Hayes (a delegate). They were of Southampton, Hadley, Coventry.st Cor. Hatfield, Murreyfield since Chester, Northampton, Marlborough Ver. Salmon brook Simsbury Cor. Rev. Joseph Strong was prevented by sickness.

The town of Westhampton was incorporated A.D. 1778, from the northwest part of Northampton; on which settlements began to be made about A.D. 1767. In November of that year, Lemuel Strong the eldest son of Mr. Noah Strong (in 1814 the eldest man in the town) was born, & is supposed to have been the first child whose birth was in the territory which is now Westhampton. At the end of 1779 about 60 families, generally young & small were in the town, containing perhaps a few more than three hundred souls.

An exact list of the first members of the church cannot be given. The following is believed to be nearly correct, as containing the communicants at that time in town, who soon unite with the church, if not at its organization. Other persons, inhabitants of the town were added in a little time by making a profession of religion.

May 3. 1822

After a lecture a church meeting duly notified was attended.

The Report of the Committee of the Church for the year now ending was read by the Pastor, and each article was separately considered and voted; then the whole was adopted nearly or quite unanimously.

The Report is as follows,

Church meeting May 3. 1822

The Committee of the Church of Christ in Northampton for the year now ending respectfully offer the following Observations & recommendations.

During the past year they have unhappily found occasion in several instances to pay attention to brethren who were thought to be injuring, if not destroying, themselves by drinking intemperately of intoxicating liquors. Their lexertions to reclaim from that vice, if not so completely successful as they ardently wished, they allow themselves to hope, have not been wholly without success. But further endeavors, they are sensible, will be necessary, to effect (if by the grace of God it be possible,) a thorough reformation in all who have deviated from the way of the gospel.

Your Committee from their experience and observation are convinced, that energetic measures are needed in administering gospel discipline, to realize all the good which Christ designed to have accomplished by it. Far from excusing christians in omitting to watch over each other and to admonish one another as there is occasion in the Lord, they would quicken them to the brotherly performance of this duty in the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

They recommend to adopt as Standing Rules of the Church,

I. That a Committee of the brethren be annually selected, to assist the Pastor in promoting the purposes of christian discipline, — by encouraging a faithful attendance on divine institutions, together with a godly practice — & restoring (if practicable) to the right way any that may deviate from it, extending their benevolent care to all baptized persons, and their friendly exhortations, as needed, to the whole population of the town.

II. That the Committee meet with the Pastor as frequently as they judge it needful, and not less than four times in a year — that they keep a Record of their proceedings — and make a Report at the end of the year to the church.

III. That it be considered as the duty of all the members of the church to be prompt in assisting the Committee, particularly by giving them useful information, and by conversing when requested by them with any brother or sister of the Church.

IV. That it is viewed as the duty of each member of the church to attend any meeting of the Committee at which he or she, is officially requested by the pastor to be present.

Your Committee, while confident that the occasional presence of brothers and sisters of other branches of Christs family is animating to pious hearts when sitting at his table to keep the memorial of his death, are persuaded, that the nature of human society and the order of the gospel, render it expedient, that the stated communion of christians ordinarily be, with fellow disciples with whom they have intercourse in the common walks of life, and associate in attending the weekly worship of the house of God. They therefore propose the following Rules to be adopted.

I. All members in good standing in sister churches, which hold fellowship with this church, who shall be present at the celebration of the Lord's Supper, are invited to partake with this church of the feast of his death.

Church Meeting May 3. 1822

II. It being in ordinary instances the duty of christians, when by removing their residence they change their place of attending on the administrations of the the Lord's day, to take early measures to transfer their special church relation, to the church with which they statedly worship, it will be expected when members of this church go out of the town to reside, or members of another church come into it, and desire communion here, (that) they will, at the longest within a year, exhibit letters of recommendation, for the transfer of their church relation, unless the omission be justified by important reasons, which shall be made known to the church with which communion shall be desired.

III. Any person who has enjoyed occasional communion in this church, is upon gospel principles amenable to it, if charged with improper conduct while in the town.

IV When a letter of recommendation is desired, that the special relation of a member of this church may be trans-ferred to another church, the desire shall be propounded to the church, in ordinary instances, fourteen days before a vote of the church shall be called for upon it.

V. It being important not only that professors of godliness do not depart from the gospel faith, but that they be known to adhere to it the Confession of faith, and Covenant adopted by this church shall as often as once in three years be publicly read, that all the members of the church may have opportunity to manifest their assent to it, and shall be presented, in such manner as the church may direct, to those members who shall not be present at the public reading, that they may signify their assent to it. And all members received into the church upon recommendation from sister churches shall manifest to the Pastor their assent to the same Confession and Covenant.

Enoch Hale Pastor

Westhampton June 9th 1829. Lords day.
A letter missive prepared by the Pastor to call an Ecclesiastical Council to install Rev. Horace B. Chapin July 8th next - to meet at the house of Sylvester Judd Esq was read to the Church & voted - The churches to be requested to meet by their pastors and delegates are Northampton

Hadley, Amherst 2d Amherst College church
& the church of Rev. S S Berman Troy N.Y.

Rev. Horace B. Chapin's answer is here copied

Westhampton June 8. 1829.
Brethren of the Church, & Gentlemen of the first Congregational Parish —

God, in his all wise providence, has directed your thoughts and counsels in such a manner, as to render it a duty for me to decide a question, which deeply involves the temporal & eternal interests of this church & society. Should I decide this question in the negative, I am apprehensive I should disappoint the hopes, and discourage the hearts of many for whom I feel the sincerest regard. Should I answer it in the affirmative, I see trials before me, which I feel poorly prepared to meet or sustain, but could not avoid.

It is a painful thought to have any of the friends of my Savior at variance with me: this I extremely regret. As one encompassed with infirmities, I should need their friendship, their influence, prayers & efforts in building up the spiritual temple of God.

But notwithstanding the difficulties which are to be lamented, this is a field of labor which seems to be assigned me, at least for the present, by the directing finger of heaven.

The indications of divine providence I have studied to learn, & endeavored to regard. The time and circumstance of my introduction among you, the union of feeling & opinion expressed by the society which has given me a call to become their Colleague Pastor, the kindness experienced from those with whom I have the pleasure of an acquaintance— the removal of the last serious objection in giving me the prospect of a dwelling, which shall have the endearments of home—with the belief this manifestation of feeling comes from the kindness of the heart, & not simply ~~simply~~ connected with the passing occurrences of the day, have impressed my mind with the conclusion, that the call is of God, as well as of men. And are there sacrifices to be made? I trust in Christ, my brethren, I am willing to make them. Are there trials to be endured; though friends should forsake, Christ can give me grace and strength these trials to endure. And now not knowing what shall befall me here, or whether I shall make my grave with you and your fathers. I come to come to relieve an aged Watchman and to unite my prayers and exertions with his and yours, for the good of the church, in this "hill country" of our Lion.

Your call I accept. In me it would be sin to do otherwise. I accept it from present conviction of duty. And God grant we may stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel.

Yours affectionately
H. B. Chapin

A Church Meeting Octr 20. 1829

In reply to which the following was voted;

A paper undersigned by forty six members of the Church, certified to be a true copy from the original record by Lenas Sikes, Clerk, was laid before the Church by the Pastors; which being considered the Church voted as follows,

The Church is grieved to learn that any of her members think themselves necessitated, or allowed, by Christ to take those steps which they have announced. They say "that while we retain our fellowship for the Church of Christ in this place as christian brethren and sisters in the Lord, we do thus publicly secede from their jurisdiction and control over us & hold ourselves no longer amenable to them". To this the Church reply: It is written, Gal: 3: 15. "Though it be a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto." Is not a covenant confirmed, when avouched in the presence of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the holy angels?

Christ has established the maxim, that "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand." Those who secede from the jurisdiction of the church deprive themselves of the priviledges of her members: And the church, in faithfulness to Christ, is constrained to view them, in their present condition, as not entitled to her communion.

Finally, the Church, in her unpleasant farewell to her departed members, beseeches them, to compare the spirit manifested in the reasons which they assign for their conduct, with the humble and benevolent spirit of Christ and his religion of peace, as delineated in his inspired word.

Voted that a copy of the Churches Reply as above be handed to Lenas likes to be communicated.
